

THE SRS WAY

Secure Records Solutions (SRS) is a family-owned document management company headquartered in Thomasville, Georgia. Since W. Powell Jones founded SRS in 2003, the company has operated on Judeo-Christian principles, with a mission to improve the lives of others.

Powell's son Christopher Jones joined SRS in 2011 as a partner. Together, they operate the business and lead a team of 40 employees.

In addition to document management and consulting services, SRS also offers an array of shredding, scanning, indexing, and storage services to clients across the country.

SRS is PRISM Privacy+, NAID AAA-certified and carries the Georgia Bureau of Investigation's GCIC Accreditation.

Always Improving

Secure Records Solutions seeks to improve the lives of others by making connections, solving problems, and creating sustainable solutions. The firm creates value for its clients through inventive thinking and innovative document management solutions.

Founded on Judeo-Christian principles, SRS is guided by four core values:

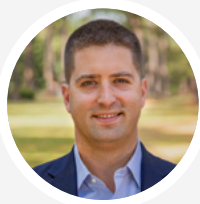

- Improvement - We believe in effecting positive change in everything we do.
- Innovation - We believe old problems need new thinking.
- Implementation - We believe creative ideas are just the beginning.
- Integrity - We believe the how matters more than the what.

Secure Records Solutions believes in effecting positive change through new thinking, following through to the end, and doing it all the right way.

LEADERSHIP

Christopher P. Jones

Partner and Chief
Problem Solver

As Chief Problem Solver at Secure Records Solutions, Christopher has developed a reputation for solving increasingly complex problems on a grand scale. His specialties include management consulting, electronic content management software conversions, and business process outsourcing related to records management, document scanning, and shredding. Since joining his father, Powell, in 2011, Christopher has built upon the original vision of SRS to include a variety of service offerings. The company now serves clients across the country. In 2018, Christopher was elected president of PRISM International where he completed a successful merger with NAID to form i-SIGMA. He then served a two-year term as co-President. In addition to his involvement with business and civic organizations, he is an active member of First Presbyterian Church and serves on the Georgia Chamber board. Christopher is an alumnus of the University of Georgia and was also a 2014 member of IGEL, a 2019 graduate of Georgia Forward Young Gamechangers, and a 2018 graduate of Leadership Tallahassee. He lives in Thomasville with his wife and two young daughters.

W. Powell Jones

Founder and Chief
Secret Keeper

Twenty years ago, W. Powell Jones founded Secure Records Solutions. As Chief Secret Keeper, Powell brings extensive leadership experience and wisdom in client service, procurement, logistics, and revenue cycle management. Powell has also been a leader in the industry trade organization PRISM International, now a part of i-SIGMA, for more than a decade. A graduate of Washington & Lee University, Powell spent over 12 years with W.J. Powell Company, his family's produce company. W.J. Powell sold to Performance Food Group in 1997, and Powell remained President of Powell/PFG until 1999. Powell is a Thomasville native and has held a variety of executive leadership roles in community and non-profit initiatives. He has been a member of Thomasville Rotary since 1986 and served as president and on the board of directors. Previously, he served on the boards of Archbold Medical Group, the Thomasville YMCA, and the Thomasville Cultural Center. Powell spent many years involved in YPO and is a graduate of Leadership Georgia and Leadership Tallahassee. In 2000, he was named "Man of the Year" by the Thomasville-Thomas County Chamber of Commerce. He is also a lifelong member of First Presbyterian Church. He and his wife, Caren, have been married for nearly 40 years and have four children.
